

Have questions about how an iPod or iPad works?

Don't understand what an app is? Why is there so much hype about these devices? Come to this training for an overview of the accessibility features of the iPods and iPads, as well as a review of some of the applications that can be beneficial and useful for individuals with disabilities, as well as their families and support staff!

Training conducted by a representative of Pennsylvania's Initiative on Assistive Technology (PIAT)
